

GODLY GIRL INC.

Hey my beautiful sister!

I'm so glad that you're here. If you've arrived on this page, I believe God is tugging on your heart guiding you onto the path that leads to a true relationship with Him so that you may experience the supernatural joy and peace that He created you to live in.

For decades now, we've been taught in church that salvation is just confessing with our mouths that Christ came to the Earth in flesh form & endured a gruesome death on the cross for our sins so that we could be saved. Sis, don't get me wrong, Christ's sacrifice is a huge and vital part of our salvation because without it there would be no other way we could be saved— but I want to urgently warn you that it's not all of it. And let me be alkaline water clear— we so desperately need ALL of what salvation through Christ offers us.

As a matter of fact, I went through life believing that I was saved because I got baptized and confessed Jesus with my mouth. But that was a lie from the pits of hell which was leading me into false eternal security. I knew I was going to Heaven and you couldn't tell me differently. Guess what I didn't know?! God's word, which is the ONLY way we can get to know God.

The Bible says in Matthew 7:21 that not everyone who calls me to Lord Lord will enter into the kingdom of Heaven but the one who does the will of my Father who is in Heaven.

This other piece of the Salvation meat is about accepting Jesus as Lord of your life. That means that He begins to guide your decisions and your life as a whole. You have decided to live for Christ and Christ alone. (I have decided to follow Jesus no turning back! No turning back! 🙌🙌) sis when you make the decision to give Jesus your life, you've laid down your plans to pick up His divine plans for your life! You are saying to God, purify me Lord with the blood of Jesus that washes white as snow and work in and through me Lord for Your glory alone I live!!

You might be reading this like oh I didn't know all of that.. I need to dissect this a little more and yes, you should! & we'd like to partner with you in doing so!

So if you don't mind leaving your contact info with us and someone from our Outreach team will connect with you to talk you through this process!

Don't wait, God is calling you! Answer before it is too late. I tell you that accepting Christ as Lord and Savior of your life is the most important decision you'll ever make!! I mean it from the bottom of my heart.

I love you sis, God loves you more.
